Those Who Commit Suicide in the Name of “Jihad” are Actually Followers of Satan¹

By Ṣāliḥ Ibn Fawzān al-Fawzān

The great scholar, Dr. Ṣāliḥ Ibn Fawzān al-Fawzān, a member of Saudi Arabia’s council of senior scholars and the Permanent Committee of scholars, describes those who claim they are performing “Jihad” for the sake of Allah by committing suicide are actually fighting for the sake of Satan.

Those people who fall into this type of corruption never sought the council of any Islamic scholars, never learned anything from them. Instead, they isolate themselves from mainstream Muslims and privately accompany people who act as the worst “human idols.” Such people then began brain washing individuals until they eventually harbor enmity towards the public and thus carry out these types of attacks. They consider Muslims to be disbelievers, they murder them, blow up buildings indiscriminately killing both the young and old, male and female, Muslims and those non-Muslims guaranteed safety and living peacefully under Muslim laws (in Muslim nations) – all because of this corrupt ideology.

This is the end result of all those who turn to wicked people for guidance and to the very callers and propagators that the messenger (ﺻﻠﻰ ﺍﻟﻠﻪ ﻋﻠﻴﻪ ﻭﺳﻠﻢ) told of when he was asked about certain trials and tribulations that will occur toward the end of time; he said:

« دُعَاةٌ عَلَىٰ أَبْوَابِ جَهَنَّمَ مَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ قَذَفُوهُ فِيهَا »

Callers at the doors to Hell; whoever obeys them, they will cast him into it (Hell).²

This is exactly the state of affairs now and it only confirms this statement of the messenger (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ). When such people align themselves with callers to misguidance, those callers lead others into it (misguidance or Hell). Everyone condemns

² Recorded by al-Bukhārī and Muslim. The full text of the ḥadīth is as follows:

Ḥudhayfah Ibn al-Yamān said: People used to ask Allah’s messenger about good things, but I used to ask him about bad circumstances fearing that I may fall into them. So I said, “Oh messenger of Allah, we used to live in evil during the times before Islam then Allah brought us this good (Islam), so will there be more evil times after these good times?” He (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) replied, “Yes.” I further asked, “And will there then come good after that evil?” He answered, “Yes, but it will be tainted.” I asked, “Why will it be tainted?” He said:

« قَوْمٌ يَهْدُونَ بِغَيْرِ هَدْيِي، تَعْرِفُ مِنْهُمْ وَتَنْكُرُ »

There will be people who will guide with other than my guidance. You will recognize some things from them and reject other things.

I asked, “And will there be after that good even more evil?” He replied:

« نَعَمْ، دُعَاةٌ عَلَىٰ أَبْوَابِ جَهَنَّمَ، مَنْ أَجَابَهُمْ إِلَيْهَا قَذَفُوهُ فِيهَا »

Yes, there will be callers at the doors of Hell; whoever answers their call, they will cast him into it (Hell).

I then said, “Oh messenger of Allah, describe them for us.” He said:

« هُمْ مِنْ جِلْدَتِنَا وَيَتَكَلَّمُونَ بِأَلْسِنَتِنَا »

They will be from our skin (Arab) and speak our tongue (language).

I asked, “So what do you instruct me to do if I reach those times?” He said:

« تَلْزِمُ جَمَاعَةَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَإِمَامَهُمْ »

Stick with the mainstream group of Muslims and their leader.

“What if there is no main group and no leader?” The prophet (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) then said:

« فَاعْتَزِلْ تِلْكَ الْفِرْقَ كُلَّهَا وَلَوْ أَنْ تَعْضَّ بِأَصْلِ شَجَرَةٍ حَتَّىٰ يَدْرِكَكَ الْمَوْتُ وَأَنْتَ عَلَىٰ ذَلِكَ »

Stay away from all of those sects even if you have to bite onto the root of a tree and remain in that state until death comes to you.

them and hates their actions – both non-Muslims and believers. And no one supports their actions except those like them and those on the same methodology.

This issue (of suicide attacks) is certainly a great tribulation and evil, and it is crucial that Muslims carefully understand the issue and not rush to act. Anyone (confused about the issue) should ask the people of religious knowledge to clarify the correct position and then ask Allah for guidance. People should not simply trust others with regards to this issue without knowing the reality of such propagators and whether they are established upon truth or not even though they may outwardly show good conduct, religious fervor, and honor for Islam.

As for everyone who outwardly shows good and truth yet is religiously ignorant, we must not hasten to him and give him our trust and reliance until we know the reality of him, his character, and his behavior. This only happens due to giving such a person the benefit of the doubt yet without really looking into his affairs or asking the people of knowledge, intellect, and good advice. As a result, these groups are formed because of people simply hastening to act and because of religious ignorance and mixing with evil people, trusting in them, relying on them and staying away from the mainstream Muslims and their scholars.

Such people (suicide bombers) are always those who avoid religious lessons and the scholars so they naturally fall into these types of things. Similarly, they usually isolate themselves from their families and homes.

So, it is incumbent especially on the Muslim youth to take a lesson from such people, for the successful people are those who learn lessons from the actions of others. We must learn from these incidents that we have to stick to our religious limits and stick to the main body of Muslims and their leader and not split off from them and turn to others (for guidance).
